State of New Jersey :

ss

County of Somerset :

Be it remembered, that on this                      day of , Nineteen Hundred and Twenty Six, Henry B.

Carpender and                      as shall then and there be objected against him, and shall not depart the court without leave, that this recognizance be void, otherwise to be and remain in force.

personally appeared before me, Charles W. Parker, one of the justices of the Supreme Court of New Jersey, and did severally acknowledge themselves to be indebted to the State of New Jersey in the sum of                      Justice of the Supreme Court

Dollars each, to be levied of their respective goods and chattels, lands and tenements, if default be made in the following condition:

Whereas, the said Henry B. Carpende was charged before Frank L. Cleary, Esquire, Judge of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Somerset on the twelfth day of August, 1926, upon the oath of one J. J. Lamb, for that on or about the fourteenth day of September, 1922, at the Township of Franklin, in the County of Somerset, the said Henry B. Carpende did on or about the fourteenth day of September, 1922, wilfully, feloniously and of his malice aforethought kill and murder Elenor Mills; and

Whereas the said Frank L. Cleary, Judge of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the County of Somerset, did on the nineteenth day of August, 1926, under his hand and seal, issue a further commitment reciting prima facie evidence of the murder of Eleanor Mills and Edward Hall on the said fourteenth day of September, 1922, and directing the Sheriff and Keeper of the Jail of the County of Somerset to receive and keep the body of your petitioner to await the action of the grand jury of the County of Somerset. Now, therefore, if the said Henry B.
